To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer Esqr., B. A.,
Secretary to Government for Education,
Agriculture etc., Bangalore.

Sir,

We need hardly introduce ourselves to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja as the oldest Printing House in the --- State, since our very birth we have been enjoying their confidence and patronage. In fact, we may say we pioneered printing as a -- private enterprise in the State and in spite of the caprices of -- times we have steadily steered through these four decades.

2. There has been a marvellous evolution in the Printing Machinery of late, just as in other kinds of Machinery and --- many up-to-date labour and time saving appliances are now in the Market. Though we have been with our present out-fit doing well enough, yet we feel the dire necessity for supplementing it with a few more appliances in order to keep abreast with the times and the ever growing Public taste for Printing, Modern in style and execution. For this, we are in need of about Rs. 5000/- where-with to purchase Machinery and Types.

3. The present day Money-Market has grown so ~~mmmxi~~ usuriously high that far from using it for the benefit of his - business, one would be tempted to stand where he is rather than think of making an advance. Otherwise we should not trouble - Government to advance us any Monetary help. Our safety is -- also secure in the hands of the government.

4. We cannot too deeply appreciate the Philanthro-- --pic Spirit of the benign Government in stepping forward at -- this juncture with outstretched hands to help and support Indus -trial regeneration and we would only take this apportunity to --- request Government to extend a helping hand to us and give --- -
